

CAPE CODDERS FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE

PRESENT

WHAT PRICE EMPIRE?
SPEAKOUT ON THE COSTS OF PERPETUAL WAR

A public forum to assess the costs of present military expansionism in human lives & to the human spirit;
to freedom and democracy at home;
to programs and resources at home;
to international cooperation and coexistence;
...and to discuss how to change the present course.

Cape Cod Community College Cafeteria
6:30 - 9:15 PM, Thursday, March 18, 2004

Speakers:

Dr. Joseph Gerson, American Friends Service Committee

Chris Allen-Doucot, Voices in the Wilderness

Mary Zepernick, WILPF, Program on Corporations Law and Democracy

Bob Silverberg, Veterans for Peace

Ruth Kiefson, Military Families Speak Out

Rev. Michael Davis, Cape Cod progressive minister

...with musical interludes by Denya LeVine, Cape Cod Fiddlers

Co-sponsors: Cape Cod Green-Rainbow Party; Women's International League for Peace and Freedom; Cape Chapter of the Fellowship of Reconciliation; Friends Meeting, East Sandwich; Friends Meeting South Yarmouth; Veterans for Peace; Outer Cape Codders' Peace Circle; Brewster Peace Organizing Project; The Clothesline Project; Resource Center for Peace and Justice

For additional information, contact: David (508-432-1718) (or Diane (508-432-1744) or email ccpj@earthlink.net
www.capecodpeaceandjustice.org